

King, Valerie A.

---

From: King, Valerie A.
Sent: Friday, February 21, 2003 4:06 PM
To: 'marlize.delange@farmovs-parexel.com'
Subject: Follow-Ups

Dear Marlize:

The test certificate is on its way to you via overnight mail. Please let me know if you do not receive it on Monday. Once you have executed the affidavit before the oath administrator, please return it and the test certificate to my attention via overnight mail. We will include both in the shipment of the devices.

My legal counsel (Amy McCann) indicated that she did not hear from anyone in your legal department. I wasn't certain of whether this was because they felt it wasn't necessary, or whether you'd not been able to arrange for a call. Could you please confirm? If they still need to speak, I can help arrange something early next week.

Lastly, we are still trying to work out the best vendor/process to handle the physical shipment between our facilities. I'd like to arrange for a teleconference either Monday or Tuesday morning (our time) to include Mr. van Straaten (he is your import/export coordinator, correct?), yourself, me, Sean Smith (who is coordinating the actual shipment on this end), and possibly one of the import/export experts on our end. Can you be available on Monday at 10:30 am (our time)? Let me know and I can send out dial-in numbers first thing Monday. If Monday is bad, would Tuesday at 10:30 am (our time) be possible instead? Hopefully, this call would allow us to sort out the final details.

Thanks and best regards,
Valerie